

Jamiroquai, Mr Moon

Have you gone astray?
Or lost your way?
You should have seen me yesterday
Well I knew this kind of love
Was written in the stars
Its only once or twice that youre in line with Mr Moon
Then it was you
Took me on your cloud
Gave me flowers for my pain
But with some degree of certainty
My destiny seemed to slip away from me
Before I got to know your name
Just give me a chance
Ill do what you want me to
Everybody wants to dance
So how come I cant dance with you
You really turn me on
Youre the one that makes me smile
Its Mr Moon who plays in tune, Mr Moon who knows
And if its Mr Moon who gives the sign then thats the sign that goes
I never know what to do
Till Im there with you.
Did you lose your mind
For a day
You dont remember anyway
Like the waters of a dream
Encapsulate my mind
A place! havent seen sits at the end of space and time
So lost in time
Than I think Im blond
To perhance upon this circumstance is something of a miracle
So spiritual
Its verging on the physical
Searching for a love I cannot find.
