Janet Jackson, Where are you now

Love My love

I regret the day you went away

I was too young

To understand my love

But now I realize my mistakes

[CHORUS:]

Where

Where are you now

Now that I'm ready to Ready to love you the way you loved me then

Where are you now Do you still think of me

Or does your heart belong to someone else's

Love

Oh my love

Wonder sometimes were you just a dream

I sit in the dark

Wondering if our paths

Will ever cross again

Oh lord I need to know

I sit and wonder

[CHORUS]

If I close my eyes

And make a wish

When they open will you be right here with me

Where are you now

Now that I'm ready to

Ready to love you the way you loved me then

Could it be

That two people

Were meant to be

In my dreams

That's what I feel

Or could it be that I'll never see you again

My love that was so true

Still I'll sit here waiting all alone

By the phone for you

Now I understand

(now I understand)

When you said I love you

I sit and wonder

[CHORUS (2x)]
