

Janis Joplin, Intruder

You come around here
Trying to make your demand.
Youve got a need, darling,
Ive seen it grow and expand.

Yeah, you want to reveal my life
With your own two hands.
Well, tell me now
What are you trying to do ?

Those holes in your life
Show what you require.
Youre needin new eyes,
Oh Lord, honey take any wire ?

Yeah youve gotta save us all
Before the next big fire.
Tell me now
What are you trying to do ?

Walked in my life,
Child, and I dont even know your name.
You put others around behind ya
As if they were lame.

You insist a simple feeling
Will be all the same.
Well, tell me now
What are you trying to do ?

Now I look like Im suffering,
N-n-n-n-n-n-now Im doing fine.
One look at yourself baby,
Child, I got you alive.

Yeah, youre gonna take care of yours,
Ill take care of mine.
What are you trying to do ?
Hey!
