

Janis Joplin, Mr. Natural

I wake up in the morning
And I look out at the sun
Then I think I'll get up, go out a while
And I get out on the run.
Then I say, "My boy, you got to slow down
And have yourself some fun."
So I lay around and I smoke a while
And I never get nothing done.

I don't care, my needs are few,
What in the world am I gonna do
With a million dollars from I don't know who
When in the world, will I get through
With living in such great expectations
With loving, some call it infatuation.

I go outside and I walk a while
Singing in the street.
I blow a kiss, I give a smile
To every one I meet.
I buy myself a beer or two
Just to leave my stone behind.
Sometimes I get so drunk
I can sing just like a child, yeah.
Ooh, ooh.

I get drunk and I laugh a lot,
There's something that I hear.
My brain gets loose, my soul gets hot,
The music hits my ears.
I hear the music...
Lord, it sounds so sweet!

Music's hot and I don't mind
If I dance a step or two.
I do a twitch, unwind my spine
I set my eyes on you.
I watch you move, you move so fine,
So fine I never knew
Making love while dancing
Is an easy thing to do.

Yes, it's easy      It ain't hard!
Yes, yes it's easy      It ain't hard!
Oh, oh, it's easy      Oh no, no, no!
Oh, it's easy      Come on...
