Jann Arden, I'd Be Glad

If I had everything I wanted
And there was nothing left to get
If every lover I had fought with
Was on their knees to get me back...

Id be glad..

If I had everything I hoped for
If everything had gone my way
Then every tear would be a diamond
And every Dog would have his day..

Id be glad..

Is this real life...

If I had everything I dreamed of
If every moment was sublime
All the hurts and all the heartache
Where just a figment of my mind

Id be glad
