

Jason Mraz, Be Where Your Feet Are

Feels like I'm surfing on a sound wave
Zooming through the universe
Feels like we're bouncing off of light waves
I bounce so hard sometimes it hurts

Every time I think I'm stuck
The sun moves along and my shadow gets up

If you lost
Relax
And be where your feet are

Everytime i try to follow someone's way
My end result is not the same
But then i do the thing
The thing i do that's just for me
And amazing things start happening
AND AGAIN
And again

Every time I think I'm stuck
The sun moves along and my shadow gets up

If you lost
Relax
And be where your feet are
