

Javeon, Give Up

I think is save
To get you what you need
From somebody who is not like me
I think is mad
Now you so shy
Won't looking my eyes
When I know your lies

Just because shape don't seem to fit together
And a stars just a lie
The days we saw won't last forever
Doesn't mean you stopped time

Why don't you give up, baby?
Why don't you give up?
Why don't you give up, baby?
Why don't you give up?
Let's yourself going surrender

Why don't you give up?
Why don't you give up?
