

Jazzpospolita, Combination (feat. Paulina Przyby

Hey
Look around us
Let's clean up all the mess My mother told me keep your hotel room tight never let the people find pick up all internal parts and bring them back

Why the sky's grey feet cold 'though still in bed Hey Move your ass and let them in between your thighs yours are always warmer than mine cuz your touch supplied with love is always hot

Hey drink your coffee cuz then you're more loving the thing that we cope with requires patience peace and that what we called forgiving mind but the last one is so fuckin hard to find

Ooo
my name is "find me" I'm a combination of all desires and the worst nightmares

my name is "find me"
you can never reach me
I am an application just to keep you running
