

Jedward, Luminous

We see the day,
Trying to fight it,
It's all in vain,
Cause we know the night wins,
But we don't care,
We're lighting up like a flare
It's so unreal,
The light that you're shining,
You make me feel like
The darkness won't matter
Cause you and I
Don't care where the day has gone.
We don't need a break of dawn
We don't need a break of dawn.

And I will always know where you are,
Cause I could see you glow in the dark,
We've got the stars and moon in us,
We're always gonna be luminous.
And I will always know where you are,
Cause I could see you glow in the dark,
We've got the stars and moon in us,
We're always gonna be luminous.

(Luminous, luminous)

The world is frozen,
Your body's warm
We fall out of our beds,
City fall asleep and weary bone.
Won't bother since the day,
We don't care, no, curse
We own the night,
As soon as you kiss me,
The sun will hide,
Ain't gonna miss it.
Cause you and I, don't care where the day has gone,
We don't need a break of dawn.

And I will always know where you are,
Cause I could see you glow in the dark,
We've got the stars and moon in us,
We're always gonna be luminous.
And I will always know where you are,
Cause I could see you glow in the dark,
We've got the stars and moon in us,
We're always gonna be luminous.
