

Jefferson Starship, Mary

Mary, I'll love her all my life but she'll never be my wife she broke my heart - broke my trust now I can't believe that she's serious

I love her, but I will never marry Mary never marry Mary...

restless and wild - she runs away comes back and tells me she's here to stay tried to give her time but she wanted more now I just don't feel like I did before

I love her, but I will never marry mary
Never marry Mary...

Mary, I tried to understand but I can't stay here at your command got to break away - it's been too long still I can't say all the feeling's gone

I love her, but I will never marry mary
Never marry Mary...
