

Jehro, All I Want

Oh she is watching me,
And her eyes they flow,
With fond and tender pain, I know,
Fate laid out a road,
We have walked alone (And) yet meet again

Now I know finally I've never been alone,
I just couldn't see, That like,
The swirling of the sea, Lies a mystery,
That brings me back to you

Oh, We put round our world,
Chains that we denied,
Yes we dreamed that we, Were free,
And this was our downfall, With no place to go,
We drift eternally

Now, I know finally, I've never been alone,
I just couldn't see, That like,
The swirling of the sea,
Lies a mystery, That brings me back to you.
