

Jennifer Hanson, Baby I Was Wrong

(Mark Nesler/Tony Martin)

I know I come across
A little hard headed sometimes
'Cause I hate to admit it
When I'm not right
You never dreamed you'd live to see this day
You'll wanna hear what I'm about to say
I learn something tonight that I can't deny

Yeah I loved you so much before
Never thought my love could grow even more
And get stronger as we went along
Baby, I was wrong

How could I make such a big mistake
I should have known
Back then a love that good
Would be this great

How could I make such a big mistake
It's easy now to see how
Love that good could be this great

Yeah I loved you so much before
Never thought my love could grow even more
And get stronger as we went along
Baby, I was wrong

Yeah I loved you so much before
Never thought my love could grow even more
And get stronger as we went along
Baby, I was wrong

Baby I was wrong, yeah
I was wrong
Baby I was wrong
