

Jennifer Lopez, Emotions

Someone took my emotions,
Don't forgive me, I didn't ask
Someone took my emotions,
I feel good, 'cause I don't feel bad

You said that you gon' take my heart babe
But I don't believe in fairytale
It's the same old thing, not a damn thing changed
You're playing games, playing games
Now I'm taking names, taking names now
And I don't play no more, baby, this is game over

Broke your heart for you could feel
Deep we're gonna think we're real,
We're through, me and you
(This is)
Tears fall down, feels like it's raining
'Cause I don't want to feel the pain, me and you
We're through

Someone took my emotions,
Don't forgive me, I didn't ask
Someone took my emotions,
I feel good, 'cause I don't feel bad
