

Jenny Frost, Crash landing

All my hopes and fears
Are here with me today
It's in my childhood tears
Will all be washed away
I'm walking from the wreckage
No, I won't be lost at sea
And I don't need an SOS
Don't try to rescue me
It's a wonderful feeling
A simple meaning
'Cause now I'm surviving
A crash landing
Now I'm standing here
Of sound, heart and mind
I remember leaving
But don't know how I arrived
I'm rising from the ashes
Like a phoenix from the flames
And through my eyes
It's all brand new
Feels like I'm born again
It's a wonderful feeling
A simple meaning
'Cause now I'm surviving
A crash landing
A crash landing, yeah
Feels like I'm born again
It's a wonderful feeling
A simple meaning
'Cause now I'm surviving
A crash landing
It's a wonderful feeling (It's a wonderful feeling)
A simple meaning (A simple meaning)
'Cause now I'm surviving (Now I'm surviving)
A crash landing (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
A crash landing, a crash landing, a crash landing
