

Jeremih, Tonight Belongs To U! (ft. Flo Rida)

Wasn't looking for it to heal the scar
But today I was riding on lonely boulevard
Wishing all wasn't lost and then there, there you came

Honestly a star shooting through the scene
In the sky, that's where we are, and I'm tryna catch a beam
See them other girls, how they try, but they ain't fly like you

Tonight belongs to you
Tonight belongs to you
And I'm so glad I found you
I'm so glad I found you

You're all by yourself and I came to help
I was down, it wasn't right, you came from outta left
You made a storm in Ibiza, what a dream
I close my eyes baby, now I don't wanna go
I'mma star, cuz if I'm dreaming I don't wanna wake up
Gotta hear it from the stream, speak right with you

Tonight belongs to you
Tonight belongs to you
And I'm so glad I found you
I'm so glad I found you

[Flo Rida:]
I know who you are, you're a rida
Girl on fire, ghetto superstar
And I can't deny it, girl your body's damn beautiful
Let me see you turn around like ay
Baby go on drop it to the ground like ay
Red lips, yellow [?] green like ay
Eyes poppin' baby till I beat the thing right [?] feeling like y'all finally found out, what what what what
Slow down
Pull the trigger too fast and I'll bust my gun gun gun gun
No conversation
Don't stop with the body shakin'
Them other girls really basic
You amazing
So glad I got you girl

And I'm so glad I found you
I'm so glad I found you
