

Jeremy's, Saturday

One at a time
I can't do it again
Too many things
To give into and

Saturday is gonna make it right
I'll be your bodyguard tonight
Don't wanna think 'bout anything
But when you hold me tight

You step in glass
I was shocked and amazed
Too big for her
Still I'm craving for saturday

And Steven's not at home right now
He's still out dancing
No-one else apart from me knows
Where to find him
