

Jerry Jeff Walker, OD Corral

Bye buckaroos it's the end of another go round

I can see by the look in our eyes that we're finally windin down

To the end of the wrong long time out on the trail it seems

It's time we were headed home to beddie bye and dreams

I'am headed for the O. D. Corral

I ust a little farther down the trail

I'am headed for the O. D. Corral

If you see the bear tell him to wait there

Well it's late in the evenin all the stars are out tonight

I am too-so I'am gonna go trippin home by the light of little bitty rabbits by the road with little bitty flashlights

Showin me all the chuckholes in the road on our way back home tonight

Just a little farther down the trail

I'am headed for the O. D. Corral

If you see the bear tell him to wait there.
