

Jerry Reed, Take A Walk

put it in front of the right.
Now, take your right foot,
put 'er down in front of the left.
Whooooeeeee! Son, you are on your way, now;
you is going to take a walk.
Walk on down to the dry cleaners and pick up your walkin' pants!
Walk on down to the post office and buy some walkin'stamps!
Whooooeeeee!
My feets are tired.
