

Jesse, Joker

can't play your game
so take me away
but without me
you're incomplete
I'm the missing piece
trick or a treat
smile on my face
laughing & joking
usually lonely & if you hold me
I'll make you stronger
I wanna do that driving me mad
want what you have

oh what a shame
no one to blame
without escape
tears on my face
call me insane
put me in a box
tell me who I am & all that i'm not
are you confused?
I know, me too
winning or losing
I don't need a suit
put me on trial & I'll tell the truth
if you want me to

diamonds & spades
jack of all trades I'm having trouble not finding my place been around king's I had a queen
lost in the club with my heart on my sleeve I can't behave
lock me away
learnin to juggle & losing my faith live to get ahead of the race, necessary evil

always gonna feel out of place, room full of people

can't play your game
I tried to change
painted my face
made a new name
are you entertained?
