

Jessie Ware, In Your Eyes

There were butterflies Moving in the light
They were justified
Every single time
Every time you looked
They were justified

You were here before Then you go away
But i never left
I feel just the same
What i wanna know Did something change?

Coz i can hardly breathe
I am feeling like
I wanna be free from feeling this Pleasure and the pain
But it never goes away
Coz it's harder to see when you're giving me
Every look i need to live again
Don't wanna be saved

But what i am trying to say is that it feels like We've been dancing to this song all of our lives
And when you're here
I leave the world behind
But i am not trying to fight it I'll just keep on dancing in your eyes
in your eyes

when the music stops when it's time to leave would you walk away would you follow me with no guarantee cos i am not afraid

I am feeling like
I wanna be free from feeling this
Pleasure and the pain
But it never goes away
Coz it's harder to see when you're giving me
Every look i need to live again

what i am trying to say is that it feels like
We've been dancing to this song all of our lives
And when you're here
But i am not trying to fight it
in your eyes
dancing in your eyes
in your eyes

it's harder to see every look i need

what i am trying to say is that it feels like

And when you're here

And it's feels like
