

Jessie Ware, Selfish Love

baby, let's be honest about this there's only room for one in your heart so tell me darling,
why are we like this?
I must admit that I kind of like it

you're acting sweet
I know what that means
all these games we play
always end the same

selfish love
why do I do these things?
I break you down
just to get my way
selfish love
darling you do it too
you tell me lies
and I bend the truth
and I know
that I can't
selfish love

baby now it feels like we're dancing touching bullets
now ain't that romantic?
take what I want
but you won't need to take it I only give love and I want to make it

you're acting sweet
I know what that means

selfish love
why do I do these things?
I break you down
just to get my way
selfish love
darling you do it too
you tell me lies
and I bend the truth
that I can't
selfish love
