Jessie Ware, Step Into My Life

Look into my eyes When we're together Ain't nothin better So i am gonna get ya

But are you worth my while Or are you playing? That's the question i keep asking myslef

But it feels so right When i feel your eyes Maybe for tonight

Can i feel your body?
Baby that's enough
Now's the time to spet into my life
And it feels so right
When you catch my eyes
Maybe for tonight
Would you catch my body?
Don't be scared to touch
Now's the time to step into my life

Give into me Show what youre feeling In harmony Show me you need me boy

You got my attention No complications I just wanna get to know ya

I don;t wanna talk No conversation I am tired of waiting more More of your love
