

Jettingham, Recognize

Who the hell do you think you are to tell me
How I'm supposed to live
You say advice is free
But I thought I made it clear that I didn't want it
You always said that I would never change
That I would always be the same
But this is who I am accept it
Because I'm sure in time you'll find that I am fine
Until then you can be sure, I feel like shit

You don't seem to realize that everything has come to this and
I can't seem to find a way to let you know that I don't care
You can't seem to recognize that this is not your life
And it never was
I can't make you understand, I don't give a fuck what you think

And I know that it's always someone else's fault and Never yours
I'd say you're selfish but I know there's got to be a better word
You're on a power trip and I can see no end to it
I guess you thought I'd learn to accept it
But time is out for you, you're running out of luck
So I have a good idea Just shut the fuck up

You don't seem to realize that everything has come to this and
I can't seem to find a way to let you know that I don't care
You can't seem to recognize that this is not your life
And it never was
I can't make you understand, I don't give a fuck what you think

You don't seem to realize that everything has come to this and
I can't seem to find a way to let you know that I don't care
You can't seem to recognize that this is not your life
And it never was
I can't make you understand, I don't give a fuck what you think

You don't recognize it's my life
You don't recognize it's my life
You don't recognize it's my life
You don't recognize
