

Jewel, Someday Soon

There's a young man that I know whose age is twenty-one
Comes from down in southern Colorado
Just out of the service, he's lookin' for his fun
Someday soon, I'm goin' with him someday soon

My parents can not stand him 'cause he rides the rodeo
My father says that he will leave me cryin'
But I would follow him right down the roughest road I know
Someday soon, I'm goin' with him someday soon

When he comes to call, your pa ain't got a good word to say
That's 'cause he's just as wild back in his younger days

So blow, you old Blue Northern, blow my love to me
He's ridin' in tonight from California
He loves his damned old rodeo as much as he loves me
Someday soon, I'm goin' with him someday soon

When he comes to call, your pa ain't got a good word to say
That's 'cause he's just as wild back in his younger days

So blow, you old blue northern, blow my love to me
He's ridin' in tonight from California
He loves his damned rodeo as much as he loves me
Someday soon, I'm goin' with him someday soon
Someday soon, I'm goin' with him someday soon