Either you gon' stretch or either you gon' fold
Either you gon' ride or get rolled on

Don't ask me cuz I know what I'm a do

But what you gon' do?
Buy the solos with the dodo's and nogo's and fofos
In choke holds after getting chased by the po po's
You gon' ride solo or is you gon' group it?
Or is you gon' think before you start being stupid

Comin up in da hood where the streets are cold
Either you gon' stretch or either you gon' fold
Either you gon' ride or get rolled on
Which one is it or they pay u a visit

And own a big house on the roof a helicopter

Same homies changing clothes, wearin eachothers socks

A life to try to live
And see about a hundred
