Jim Brickman, The Love I Found In You

You are the air I need to breathe the river of life inside of me you are the half that made me whole you are the anchor of my soul and you are strong when I am weak you are the words when I can't speak you never fail to see me through that's the love I found in you you are my shelter from the storm you are the road that leads me home and baby with you here face to face Oh I know I've found my place and you are strong when I am weak you are the words when I can't speak you never fail to see me through that's the love I found in you and once in every life you find the one that's right and when you say forever it's true That's the love I found in you You are strong when I am weak you are the words when I can't speak you never fail to see me through That's the love I found in you That's the love, love I found in you.
