

Jim Verraros, Welcome To Hollywood

I brought a vision of dreams, like everyone else here
I saw it on tv and thought it was a mirror
Cars brighter than skylines, billboards brighter than streetlights
Something like a movie screen - not as deep as it seems

Welcome to hollywood
Town of fears and dreams
You better make an impression
Or start packing your things
Welcome to hollywood
Where nothing is what it seems
Welcome to hollywood
Welcome to hollywood

Make up and cover up all your insecurities
Forget to remember beauty's only skin deep
Lights, camera act impressed - you should've left with the rest
A little fix, some little tricks, sometimes just to get a kick

Welcome to hollywood
Town of fears and dreams
You better make an impression
Or start packing your things
Welcome to hollywood
Where nothing is what it seems
Welcome to hollywood
Welcome to hollywood

It ain't easy, it ain't easy
You got to work hard to look good
It ain't easy, it ain't easy
To be background tonight
Yeah, yeah
Welcome to hollywood
Yeah, yeah
Welcome to hollywood
Yeah, yeah
Welcome to hollywood
Yeah, oh...

Welcome to hollywood
Town of fears and dreams
You better make an impression
Or start packing your things
Welcome to hollywood
Where nothing is what it seems
Welcome to hollywood
Welcome to hollywood
