

Jimmys Chicken Shack, Silence Again

Silence again
Save me from thinking
Why don't you open inside
When you open your eyes
Is it part of some game
Save me from sleeping
What's the true meaning of win
When I've lost my towel
Ignore these thoughts
Retrace my steps
My spirit's lost a thousand bets
I won't deny circumstance

Gets greater and harder
I'm just beginning to see
That I'm slowly going blind
And it's not part of some mystery
To be left behind
Silence again!
Save me from keeping
This violence within
