Jimmy Nail, Ain't No Doubt

Ain't no doubt she says 'it's not you - it's me I need a little time, a little space a place to find myself again you know?' oh yes, I know a goodbye when I hear it she smiles but her heart's already out there walking down the street she says 'I don't want nobody else I love you', she's lying 'there won't be somebody else and that's true' she's lying 'say you'll always be my friend sweet darling why does she pretend? ain't no doubt, it' plain to see a woman like you's no good for me your heart's beating at another door I'm a damned fool for to ask for more she says 'it's like in a song, remember? "if you love someone, set them free" well, that's how it is for me and then she kisses me and somewhere I hear a door slam so I say 'fine' and just hope that I'm a better liar than she is she says 'I don't want nobody else I love you'. she's lying 'say you'll always be my friend sweet darling why does she pretend? ain't no doubt, it' plain to see a woman like you's no good for me your heart's beating at another door I'm a damned fool for to ask for more ain't no doubt, it's plain to see a woman like you's no good for me your heart's beating at another door I'm a damned fool for to ask for more 'I don't want nobody else I love you' she's lying 'there won't be somebody else and that's true' she's lying 'say you'll always be my friend sweet darling why does she pretend? ain't no doubt, it' plain to see a woman like you's no good for me your heart's beating at another door I'm a damned fool for to ask for more ain't no doubt, it's plain to see a woman like you's no good for me your heart's beating at another door I'm a damned fool for to ask for more
