

Joan Jett And The Blackhearts, She Lost You

(P. Gage)

She's got beautiful eyes
It hurts to see them cry
But they cry all day long
Since you've been gone

So why, why does that girl cry
I'll tell you the reason she's blue
She lost you

Well that girl gets around
She goes all over town
She's goin' down too fast
She's livin' in the past

So why, why does that girl cry
I'll tell you the reason she's blue
She lost you

I know it's none of my business
She's so sad to see
If I was in your position
Think how good it would be
Yeah it would

So why, why does that girl cry
I'll tell you the reason she's blue
She lost you

She got a beautiful face
She got a luxury place
She got a diamond ring
She got everything

So why, why does that girl cry
I'll tell you the reason she's blue
She lost you
She lost you
I lost you
I lost you
