

Joe Brooks, 'Til My Heart Stops Beating

I can't hold it down,
Or hold it in,
Cause I got this feeling,
That I've finally found.
I've waited on you all my life,
And with no rhyme or reason,
I got knocked to the ground.

I'm in a thousand pieces and I've got no excuse,
To keep this all a secret, secret, now.

I'm never gonna let you down,
I'm never gonna leave you out,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating
And now it doesn't matter where you are,
I'm never gonna be that far,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating

Your eyes, deep mind,
Are everything to me, acts like a diamond ring
And when we're together,
We're together now so come first
This is more than we know,
A situation that we let go,
Gonna be regretting forever,
And ever now.

I'm in a thousand pieces and I've got no excuse,
To keep this all a secret, secret, now.

I'm never gonna let you down,
I'm never gonna leave you out,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating
And now it doesn't matter where you are,
I'm never gonna be that far,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating

I'm never gonna let you down,
I'm never gonna leave you out,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating
And now it doesn't matter where you are,
I'm never gonna be that far,
I'm gonna be there till my heart stops beating,
My heart stops beating /2x

My heart stops beating /2x
