Sunshine, From the first time that we met helpless, You took my heart I must confess Deep in your eyes,

There

seemed to be a look that said Hello, is it me you're searching for

Suddenly my sunshine turn to rain I dunno if it'll ever come back again That's what you are sunshine and rain You didn't say you had a man That never belonged within your plans And it hurts so bad Someone tell me...

[Chorus:]

Why are all the good girls, taken everytime And why do I keep falling for Someone else's dime Everytime I says Hello Then they say Goodbye So why are all you good girls Taken everytime....Taken everytime...

[Verse 2:]

Dancing, With your body close to mine (Then you kiss my lips girl)Girl I thought it was a sign I want you forever But good intentions never win I've got that feeling Tonight I'll be alone again Suddenly my sunshine turned to rain I dunno if it'll ever come back again Thats what y are sunshine and rain You didn't say you had a man That never belonged within your plans And it I bad Someone tell me
