

Joe Purdy, Surgery

Well I can't wait for the weekend, like I can't wait for you
Well I can't wait for the weekend, cause I can't wait for you Going down.
you know I won't be long, going down.
Going down.
In a minute I'll be strong, for you yeah.

Well I've been thinking all day, think'in things to change.
Honey I don't want you different, but you know I can't stay the same.
Going down.
you know I won't be long, going down.
Going down.
In a minute I'll be strong, for you yeah.
Strong, for you yeah.

Well I can't stop these fevers from running round my brain,
but I won't mind the night when you're in my arms again.
no I won't mind the night when you're in my arms again.
Going down.
You know I won't be long. going down down down down
In a minute I'll be strong strong strong strong for you yeah.
Strong, strong strong strong strong.
For you yeah.
For you yeah.
For you yeah.
