Joey McIntyre, SuperGirl

There's so much to do What ever it is you'll see it is you'll it through Baby it's your world Super girl

Baby take your time You'll figure it out with your beautiful mind I'm living in your world Super girl

You've come so far in so little time Look how much you've grown I watch you struggle, I watch you try Try to make a life of your own

So let the tears falling down your face Water your dreams, they won't go to waste There all yours baby

There is so much do Whatever it is you'll see it through Baby it's your world Supergirl

You made me believe in me Showed me something that I never saw You've forever teaching me You're a never-ending waterfall I'm in love....and your sacrifice So the ones you love have a better life And I thank you baby

There is so much to do Whatever it is you'll see it through Baby it's your world Supergirl

Baby take your time You'll figure it out with your beautiful mind I'm living in your world Supergirl

With everything you do I'm always so amazed by you I wouldn't want to live a day without my super girl

There's much to do Whatever it is you'll see it through Baby it's your world Super girl

Baby take your time You'll figure it out with your beautiful mind I'm living in your world Supergirl

(There's much to do) You'll do it all Whatever it is you'll see it through -yes you will Baby it's your world Super girl
