

John Hiatt, I Spy

I spy for the fbi
(I spy for the fbi)
I spy for the fbi
(I spy for the fbi)

I got an x-ray camera hidden in your house
That sees what I can't see
And that man you were kissin' last night
Definitely was not me, oh baby

I spy for the fbi
(I spy for the fbi)
I spy for the fbi
(I spy for the fbi)

Just because he was wearin' shades
You thought he didn't leave a clue
I got his name, I know his game
He's double-0 you know who, oh baby

I spy for the fbi
(I spy for the fbi)
I spy for the fbi

(I spy)

I've got the facts in the file
Baby I don't have to guess
I took that agent's fingerprints
Off of your new red dress, oh baby

I spy for the fbi
(I spy for the fbi)
I spy for the fbi
(I spy for the fbi)

I know when you're out
I know when you're in
I know where you're goin'
'cause I know where you've been

I spy for the fbi
(I spy for the fbi)
Baby, I spy for the fbi
(I spy for the fbi)
Baby, I spy for the fbi
(I spy for the fbi)
