

John Legend, Honey (feat. Muni Long)

Honey, honey

Honey

Honey makes the world go 'round
The world go 'round
Ain't it, lovely
The way it flow when I go down
When I go down?

A million of kingdoms have fall
So many crowns will be lost
All for a taste, I will pay any cost

You're sweeter than honey
You're sweeter than honey
(Want all the) Honey
(Give me that) Sunday, Sunday, Sunday
You're sweeter than honey
You're sweeter than honey
(Want all the) Honey
(Give me that) Sunday, Sunday, Sunday
(Sweeter than)

Don't you love that golden glisten
When you put your fingers in this
Orange box, some honey comb?
It's waitin' for you when you get home
Oh, oh, you never wanna leave (Leave)
Got you addicted to me, yeah (Uh)
Baby, don't stop 'til my legs stop
When it drip, baby, don't waste a drop, oh-oh, oh

Show me the ways to explore (To explore)
Every day wantin' more (Wantin' more)
I don't wanna chase for a taste, I can't ignore (You're so sweet, ain't nothin' sweeter)

You're sweeter than honey (Sweet like honey, baby, you're so sweet)
You're sweeter than honey
(Want all the) Honey (Sweet like honey, baby, you're so sweet)
(Give me that) Sunday, Sunday, Sunday
You're sweeter than honey (Sweet like honey, baby, you're so sweet)
You're sweeter than honey
(Want all the) Honey (Sweet like honey, baby, you're so sweet)
(Give me that) Sunday, Sunday, Sunday
(Sweeter than)

Honey, honey, honey, honey drippin' down
Honey, babe
Honey, honey, honey, honey drippin' down
You sweet
Honey, honey, honey, honey drippin' down
Like honey
Honey, honey, honey, honey drippin' down
You sweet
Honey, honey, honey, honey drippin' down
Baby
