John Mayer, Belief

Is there anyone who
Ever remembers changing there mind from
The paint on a sign?
Is there anyone who really recalls
Ever breaking rank at all
For something someone yelled real loud one time

Everyone believes In how they think it ought to be Everyone believes And they're not going easily

Belief is a beautiful armor
But makes for the heaviest sword
Like punching under water
You never can hit who you're trying for

Some need the exhibition And some have to know they tried It's the chemical weapon For the war that's raging on inside

Everyone believes From emptiness to everything Everyone believes And no ones going quietly

We're never gonna win the world We're never gonna stop the war We're never gonna beat this If belief is what we're fighting for

What puts a hundred thousand children in the sand Belief can Belief can What puts the folded flag inside his mother's hand Belief can Belief can
