

John Mayer, However

I tried to see it comin but I missed it and I'm not surprised
I listened harder than I knew
I knew how to listen
And I couldn't find a thing
I tried...however
I can't win, every time
I can't be, everthing
I can't be, perfect
I can only be...
This song was written
In maybe a day
I didn't really have a lot to say
I got confused
So i took out a pen
I wrote down these lyrics
again and again
I tried...however
I can't win, every time
I can't be, everthing
I can't be, perfect
I can only be...
I can be I can I can I can be I know it
Do do do, da da, do, do, do...
