John Mayer, Lonely Town

" The best thing about being on the road is that now I can write my big road opus. I can write my big song about being on the road, which I couldnt do. Cuz every artist has to have that sort of like..." I strolled into town on a Friday night Another lonely town Did I mention that it's a brand new town on this Friday night? It's the town that I'm referring to When I refer to this town The coffee's stale And the cigarettes have...tobacco in them And...lightening. . .
