

John Mayer, New Light

i'm the boy in your other phone lightning up inside yyour drawer at home all alone pushing 40 in the friend zone we talk and then you walke away every day you don't think twice about me and maybe you're right to doubt me, but but if you give me just one night you're gonna see me in a new light if you give me just one night to meet you underneath the moonlight I wanr a take two

I want to breakthrough
I wanna know the real thing about yu so I can see you in new light take a ride up to Malibu I jsu wanna stay to look at you What would it matter if your friends knrw? who cares what other people say? we can go far from the end and make a new world together babe cause if you give me just one night you're gonna see me in a new light

to meet you underneath the moonlight
I want to breakthrough
I wanna know the real thing about yu
