

John Mayer, Whole Again

Don't wanna be so angry Don't wanna keep so quiet
Now its open fire and i can warm Don't wanna be so careful Don't care enough to mind oh no
Leave me with no hear room
To climb back down
I'll just wait for a land slide

I've made up my mind
To make me whole again
I take up your time
When I'm alone

Don't wanna be so anxious Don't care to stand in line
I lie in an open fire
As you watch me burn down
And wait along the way side

I've made up my mind
To make me whole again
I take up your time
When I'm alone

I don't wanna let you down i don't care to bring this up again
In my defense
It doesnt make sense Why you even come around weve been over and over you lay around and watch me go back out before the storm made up my mind to make me whole again
i take up your time
i am
to make me whole again
i take up your time
when im alone
