

John Newman, The Past

If love is blind I will see you
If love is lost I will hunt
I'm crawling back, I'm crawling back oh baby
I'm crawling back, I'm crawling back for more

If love is cold I will warm you
If love is dark I will bring light
I'm crawling back, I'm crawling back oh baby
I'm crawling back, I'm crawling back for more

Cause I, I, I get a little lost from my home
I, I, I, I'm still here, in our home

If I really need you
Would you walk back through the door?
Should I keep looking
I keep searching through the past, the past all or not no no
Need you
Would you walk back through the door?
Should I keep looking
I keep searching through the past, the past ohhhhh

(It's so lonely.)

When you're sexing on a car tonight
Everytime I message you delete it
I'm crawling back, I'm crawling back oh baby
I keep crawling back, crawling back for more

Cause I, I, I get a little lost from our home
I, I, I, I'm still here in our home

If I really need you
Would you walk back through the door?
Should I keep looking
I keep searching through the past, the past all or not no no
Need you
Would you walk back through the door?
Should I keep looking
I keep searching through the past, the past ohhhhh

(It's so lonely.)

Scream it out on the driver baby, screaming outside our door
I need your love like before.(I need your love like before)
Save me from this loneliness and pick me off the floor
I need your love like before

If I really need you
Would you walk back through the door?
Ohhh if I really need you
Would you walk back through the door?
Should I keep looking
I keep searching through the past, the past all or not no no
If I need you
Would you walk back through the door?
Should I keep looking
I keep searching through the past, the past all

When love is blind I would see you
When love is lost I would hunt
I'm crawling back, I'm crawling back oh baby
I'm crawling back, I'm crawling back again
