

Johnny Polygon, The Fall

(Hook)

Sometimes, the fall comes first

Get up

Get up

(It's not the house that's haunted, it's yourself)

(Verse 1)

Mind over matter

I don't mind, it don't matter

Bang bang, blood splatter

On my mom's new carpet

Brand new apartment, renovated, renovated

Shout out to the world, I intimidated bitches

Regret half the girls that I penetrated, penetrated

Lyrical and physically, I demonstrated

Chivalry ain't dead, you just told it it was thirsty

Worst thing that happened to your love life was the internet

Drown your phone, read a book and get a pet

You need some r-e-s-p-e-c-t, no disrespect

I can see the future on some Cleo shit

Got these white girls goin' crazy on some PO shit

I am not the one, I'm not Neo

No-one played your game

That's why they called you Neo-Geo

Got some blow from Mexico, baby

Because I only do drugs from the 80's

(Hook)

Sometimes, the fall comes first

Get up!

(Verse 2)

I am not what I am, I am a monster

People think I'm special but I'm just an impostor

I killed a man cuz he hurt my sister

He's somewhere, probably don't miss her

Fuck it! I'll go to hell before I go to jail

I burn a bridge before I give a shit

And while I'm standing on it, I'll take a piss

Cuz I'm serious bout my craziness

Have you ever believed in something?

For no reason other than wanting

To kill that everyday normalness

That's still present, that kills legends

I think about death with every breath

Not sure what's right, so what's left?

That's a question, don't answer all at once

The life is in the weed and the cancer's in the blunts

(Hook)

Sometimes, the fall comes first

Get up!

And everyone's responsible

(It's not the house that's haunted, it's yourself)

(Bridge x2)

Mind over matter, guess I never mattered to you

Oh, mind over matter, guess I never mattered to you

(Outro)

Everyone's so predictable

Even me, Mister Despicable

Sometimes, the fall comes first
