

Jojo, Lonely Hearts (feat. Demi Lovato)

i know myslef well i know just what ti di whit my won touch I can spray my chanel in this empty hotel king bed at the roosvelt where I can't abuse my trust switch up and ghost on us I cannot fuck me up like you
I am insecure enough and so tired of quessin' if you care how can I work on my if I am workin; on your body?

I thought we were meant to be but we never really got it did we?
I know one thing
lonely hearts won't break
hearts won't break
lonely hearts won't break
hearts won't break

I could pick up the phone right now and make that 2 am call I know just what to say but the ain't what I need right now and I won't let mt wants get in my way cuz you might abuse my trust

I cannot fuck me up like you
I am insecure enough
I don't need to be guessin' if you care

how can I work on my
I thought we were meant to be
hearts won't break
lonely hearts won't break
hearts won't break

I am likin being alone emotions under control right now is only for me just tryna find myself don't need nobody;s help don't take it personal
