

Jon Bon Jovi, Love Me Back To Life

This world dont give you nothing
It cant take away
Everybody holding on to something
Nobody wants to fade away
No forgiveness on the streets of this town
I left my patience at a traffic light
Theres no denying that I almost lost it Threw in the towel
Too tired to fight
Tonight I need you
More than yesterday
Tonight I need you
Take me, touch me
Hold me like you mean it
Make me come alive
Hurt me, heal me
Come and make me feel it
Rescue me tonight
Love me back to life
These days Id trade sight for feeling
There are days my feelings gone
Cant figure out whose life Im living
I dont know right from wrong
When I lost faith
You found it and gave it back to me
Theres a new light on your halo
It took blind eyes to see
That I need you
More than yesterday
Yeah, I need you
Take me, touch me
Hold me like you mean it
Make me come alive
Hurt me, heal me
Come and make me feel it
Rescue me tonight
Love me back to life
take me touch me
hold me like you mean it
make me come alive
Come on hurt me heal me come on make me feel it
rescue me tonight
love me back to life
come on love me back to life
come on love me back to life
