

Jon Bon Jovi, More Than We Bargained For

I've always wanted what I couldn't have
I hope and dream that maybe someday
That I'd find out what love was all about
I sure grew up tonight the hard way
Now the candy store's closed, the movie's sold out
High Plains Drifter isn't what it's all about
And now we're parting ways, I won't say a word
Let our broken hearts cry in their graves
Where they'll never be heard

It's more than we bargained for
Our love is the price we've paid
And just like a fading dream....
It's slippin' away

Last night I saw you out with my best friend
When I'm with you I see him in your eyes
I want to hold you but I don't understand
There's something there that's so hard to disguise

Now tears run down your face, as you walk through the night
Those cold empty streets leave you wondering what's right
As you walk away with your broken heart
Don't you try to deny that true love had torn you apart

More than we bargained for
Our love is the price we've paid
And just like a fading dream....
It's slippin' away

It's more than we bargained for
It's more than we bargained for

More than we bargained for
Our love is the price we've paid
And just like a fading dream....
It's slippin' away

More than we bargained for
Our love is the price we've paid
And just like a fading dream....
It's slippin' away
