

Jonas Brothers, Don't Speak

I thought I was cool
But I just looked a fool for so long,
Now youre gone, now youre gone yeah
Dont speak to me, dont speak to me
I recall all the fights most of them are times where you would lie in my arms
Now youre gone, youre gone
Dont speak to me, dont be lying
Theres alot you dont notice when you read between the lines
The futures out of focus, when youre blinded by the light.
Its a hope for all the hopeless
In the worst of trying times
I resort to being speechless
Cause our love won't survive
Our love won't survive
Dont speak to me, dont speak to me
Theres alot u didn't notice when you read between the lines
The futures out of focus, when youre blinded by the light.
It's a hope for all the hopeless
In the worst of trying times
I resort to being speechless
Cause our love won't survive
