

Jonas Brothers, One Day At A Time

Wednesday I came home from school Did my homework in my room
then I watched some TV
I still miss you
Thursday morning went online
Got to school at half past nine Wound up in detention
I still miss you

Everything I do (oh)
brings me back to you

And I die
One day at a time
'Cause I just cant seem to get you off my mind
No matter how I try
try to kill the time
well I think that im just going crazy
one day at a time

Friday I got out of bed
Tried to smile frowned instead Burnt some toast for breakfast
I still miss you
Saturday I turned 16
Never dreamt you'd act so mean
You didn't even call me
But I still miss you

And When I turn 94
I think ill miss u even more

And I die
One day at a time
'Cause I just can't seem to get you off my mind
No matter how I try
try to kill the time
well I think that im just going crazy
one day at a time

I miss you more than I did a min ago
I Climb a mountain just to here your echo (hoo, hoo)
All I wanted was you Tell me please do u think of me now and then Cause if I never see you again
I still miss you

And I die
One day at a time
'Cause I just can't seem to get you off my mind
No matter how I try
try to kill the time
well I think that im just going craaazy

(Oooo) one day at a time
Well I think that im just going crazy one day at a time Oo I think im going crazy ooooooo
