

Jonny Lang, Bump In The Road

Breaker, breaker, breaker 1 9
Is there anybody out there?
Im running this road for the first time
I d sure like to know whats ahead

I been on the wrong track with the wrong map
And Im trying to find my way home
So, come back if youre on the line
Let me know Im not alone

With this heavy load to tow behind
Its all I can do to stay between the lines
And whatever may come my way I

Cant slow down not for the weather
Wont back down - I know it gets better
(Come) too far now if I can keep it together
Wont turn around not now for just a bump in the road

Breaker, breaker, stay on the line
Im about to fall asleep at the wheel
Ive been pushing all night to meet the deadline
And Im waiting for my second wind

I cant make it alone I wont survive
Its all I can do to make it out alive
To the other side

Cant slow down not for the weather
Wont back down - I know it gets better
(Come) too far now if I can keep it together
Wont turn around not now for just a bump in the road

Got nothing to prove but so much to lose
And Id gladly give it up just to hold
Onto you cause youre all that Ive got, all I want, all I need

Cant slow down not for the weather
Wont back down - I know it gets better
(Come) too far now if I can keep it together
Wont turn around not now for just a bump in the road
