

Jorja Smith, Addicted

Too far in it
Too far gone
She knows what's in it
She know what's wrong
She just can't quit it
Her heart's so numb
But worse to run

Waits dor the night time
Days no fun
Got a call from her brother
Said he's concerned
You lied about your work
And i haven't seen you in months
There's no light in your eyes
And she won't open tchem

The hardest thing
You are not addicted to me
I am the only thing you should need
You should be addicted to me

The hardest thing
I am too selfless to leave
You're the only thing that i need
You shpuld be addicted to me

What life are you living
It can't really e real
Pushing over limits
You can't even feel
Can we drink just no to care
Not care just to drink
Can't that be enough
And not take too much

The hardest thing
You are not addicted to me
I am the only thing you should need
You should be addicted to me

The hardest thing
I am too selfless to leave
You're the only thing that i need
You shpuld be addicted to me
